Father's Day Wrap Up

Over the last past week on our Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram we have been celebrating all the super dads at Community Broker Network.

We have loved receiving brokers sending through pictures of their dads and why they love working with their dad.

We even had a couple of our staff tell us their funny dad jokes.

Check out some of pictures and videos of the CBN Father's Day social celebration and make sure you follow us on our social media, to keep updated with all the latest CBN news.

Richard Crawford's and David McKinnis' dad jokes.

Our CEO: Richard Crawford and our General Manager of Development, Strategic Partners & Subsidiaries: David McKinnis, got involved in the Father's Day Celebration by sharing with us their dad jokes. Check them out below:

Lauren Sharpe on her father, Chris.

Lauren Sharp from Thomas Insurance Services in Warburton, Victoria has shared the life lessons her father has taught her:

"Keep your commitments, treat people right, and to listen – You may not like what you hear, but you will always learn something. I enjoy spending time with Dad, and to watch him work and learn from his example is the icing on the cake."

Blake Coe on his father, David.

Blake Coe from Northwest Insurance tell us what the best thing about working with his dad is:

"The best thing about working with my father is that I get to see him every day and to be able to develop the same close bonds with his long-lasting clients who have become his friends over the years."

Jason Salvemini on his father, Ian.

Jason Salvemini from GIA Insurance Brokers shares with us what his favourite thing about working with his dad.

"Ian and I have worked together now for 18 years and he has passed on a wealth of knowledge from his 50+ years in the Insurance industry. I'm very grateful to have worked closely with dad over this time. Knowledge is key to current insurance climate and he has a wealth of it."
